PART II—Section 4

Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

S.R.O. 80, dated 24th Feb. 1961.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 184 read with clause (24) of section 3, sub-section (1) of section 7 and clause (e) of sub-section (3) of section 93 of the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957), the Central Government hereby makes the following regulations:—

1 Short title.—These Regulations may be called “The Naval Services (Army and Air Force Command) Regulations, 1960.”

2 Power to exercise command over members of Naval Forces.—When members of the regular Army and the Air Force or of either of these forces are serving with members of the Indian Navy or Indian Naval Reserve Forces under conditions specified in Regulation 3, the members of the regular Army and the Air Force may, under section 7 of the Navy Act, 1957 exercise all powers of command other than powers of punishment, as if they were members of the Naval Forces of corresponding rank and seniority.

3. Conditions for exercise of powers.—For the purposes of clause (24) of section 3 and sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Navy Act, 1957, the following shall be the conditions in which members of the regular Army and the Air Force or either of these forces serving with members of the Indian Navy or Indian Naval Reserve Forces may exercise the powers of command referred to in Regulation 2 or be superior officers in relation to members of the Indian Navy or Indian Naval Reserve Forces, namely:—

- (a) When a member of the Naval Forces is acting with a body of the regular Army or the Air Force which is on active service;
- (b) When a member of the Naval forces is being conveyed on any convoy of the Army;
- (c) When a member of the Naval forces is on board an aircraft belonging to the Air Force;
- (d) When a member of the Naval forces is attached to or serving in any Army or Air Force Unit;
- (e) When a member of the Naval Forces is serving in or is a patient in a hospital or medical unit, in which an officer of the regular Army or Air Force is on duty or is a patient;

- (f) Where a body of the Naval forces is acting with a body of the regular Army or Air Force and an order in writing applying Section 7 of the Navy Act, 1957 while those bodies are so acting has been made by the officers in command of each such body, provided that—
- (i) any such order may be made jointly by the respective officers in command of Naval, Army and Air Force formations;
  - (ii) any such order may be limited to a specified period or to a particular situation;
  - (iii) in no case, shall any Naval officer appointed to the command of any ship or ships of the Indian Navy, be superseded when afloat by an officer of the regular Army or Air Force and that in no case shall any officer of the regular Army or Air Force appointed to the command of any body of the regular Army or Air Force, be superseded when on land or air as the case may be, by any Naval officer; and
  - (iv) any such order, when made shall be communicated as early as possible for the information of the Central Government, who shall have the power to revoke or vary the provisions of any such order when deemed advisable.
- (g) Where a body of Naval forces is acting with a body of the regular Army or Air Force and the Central Government by special order have declared that it is necessary for officers of the regular Army or Air Force to exercise command over persons subject to the Navy Act, 1957 in a particular place with that body of the Naval Forces:

Provided that in no case shall any Naval officer appointed to the command of any ship or ships of the Indian Navy be superseded when afloat by any officer of the regular Army or Air Force and that in no case, shall any officer of the regular Army or Air Force appointed to the command of any body of the regular Army or Air Force, be superseded when on land or air as the case may be, by any Naval officer.

4. Condition governing summary trial and punishment of seamen.—The Commanding Officer of any body of the regular Army or the Air Force may, under clause (e) of sub-section (3) of section 93 of the Navy Act, 1957, exercise powers of summary trial and punishment as respects seamen who are attached to or serving with such body of the regular Army or the Air Force under conditions specified in clauses (a) to (e) of Regulation 3.
